The Tendency of Prices at the Exchange

New York Feb. 26 .- The tendency of change to-day, and at times the presure from bearish sources was quite erstwhile bull on the industrials it was caused some uneasiness, and the traders who were short of the market were that gold will be exported shortly, as the rates are up to the shipping point. It is needless to add that this belief does not obtain in banking circles, and not the slightest doubt is felt by bankers of the ability of the bond syndicate to carry out its contract with the govern-

The first drive was made against Chiago Gas, the stock being hammered torney General Maloney proposed to test the legality of the recent changes in the board of directors of the sub-sidiary companies. The granting of franchises to two new companies by the Chicago common council last night was also used against the stock, by late in the day, when it was announced that Mayor Hopkins would veto the audinnances a rally to 71%@70% was re-

Two of the Vanderbilt stocks, New York Central and Northwest, were then taken in hand and depressed to 97% a decline of 1% and 1% per cent. re-spectively. It was thought that the built of the short account. The general list lost about % to I per cent, in sympa-thy, Louisville and Nashville, St. Paul and Missouri Pacific being rather prominent in the dealings. Near the close Northern Pacific preferred was more active and ran off rapidly to 12%, a decline of 1% percent.

In the inactive list Susquehanna and Western preferred fell 4% to 34, and ral lied to 3614. Adams Express rose 214 to 144, American sold down 2, to 169@110, and United States 14 to 42. Canadian Pacific recovered 215 to 4214. Consolidated Coal decimed 314 to 30.

Among the industrials Cordage securities moved up on buying for a small pool. The bonds jumped about 3 points, and atocks moved up 4014 per cent, but subsequently lost on the rise. Sugar yielded a point to 9014 on the revival of the reports of a reduction in the dividend to an 5 per cent. basis. Tobacco fell 114 to 864 68714 and Cortange of the cor Tobacco fell 1% to 86% 687%, and Corton Oll advanced 1% to 20% 620%. Distillers was firm. The reorganization common and $7,000,000 preferred. old stock is to be assessed $4 per share for which holders will receive first mortgage bonds. Holders will get 30 cent. In new commer and 20 per cent. Ir ew preferred for the old stock.

The market closed about steady. Ne hanges show losses of % to 1% per cent. Cordage, Big Four, Jersey Central and Lake Shore gained 36% per cent. The bond market was irregular, Sales were $802,000;
